MMUNITY CONCERT ASSOCIATION ATURES GEORGE LONDON IN FIRST CITAL WEDNESDAY AT HIGH SCHOOL

Members of the Daly City Community Concert Association will view the first in this year's series, when George London, bass-baritone, appears in a concert November 17 in the high school auditorium.

While the concert does not begin until 8 p.m., members are encouraged to be there early as seats will not be reserved. In addition, no one will be seated after the concert starts, except between numbers. Doors of the auditorium will be open at 7 p.m.

London, while still a young man, has had a variety of professional experience both in music and on the stage. He has appeared in such operas as "Boheme," "Marriage of Figaro," "Barber of Seville" and "Carmen" with the American Music Theatre in Los Angeles and Pasadena.

He made his debut with the San Francisco Opera as Monterone in "Rigoletto" in the 1943-44 season. Turning his attention to the theatre, he then appeared with the Los Angeles and San Francisco Civic Light Opera Companies in Strauss' "Gypsy Baron," Friml's "Firefly" and Romberg's "Desert Song."

London's 1947-48 tour is equally divided between appearance with soprano Frances Yeend and tenor Mario Lanza as third member of the brilliant Bel Canto Trio, and his individual tour, including solo recitals throughout the country, oratorio appearances such as the "St. Matthew Passion" with the Buffalo Philharmonic, and opera engagements.

The San Bruno Concert Association will have their first concert November 15 beginning at 8 p.m. in the South San Francisco elementary school auditorium. Jorge Bolet, pianist, will be the guest. Members of the Daly City Concert Association may attend the San Bruno concert with their season pass.

A. G. Popkin, manager of the company, said the plant would be of ultra-modern design, dust-free and practically noiseless. A local plant is required, he stated, to furnish concrete for building expansion in this area and for the Metropolitan Life Insurance company's development near Lake Merced, where 13-story apartment buildings will be constructed in the near future.

American Courtesy Impresses Visitors

The courtesy of the American people, extending from the American vice consul in Oslo to a taxi cab driver who pointed out points of interest, was one of the features of the United States which particularly impressed Mr. and Mrs. Sigwe Bowitz of Stavanger, Norway.

Mr. Bowitz, a junior partner in the American Overseas Airlines, and his wife are visiting Fritz Erickson, manager of the Daly City branch, Bank of America. Mr. Erickson is a school friend of his father, Leif Bowitz.

The Norwegian couple flew to New York from Oslo and have traveled through heavily Norwegian settled states such as Montana, Wisconsin and Washington, and have been visiting relatives in the United States.

Contrary to the popular conception that English is hard for a foreignor to learn, Mr. Bowitz thinks the American language is quite easy to understand. He picks up new words by listening to radio broadcasts.

Using his international driver's license, the Norwegian visitor has been driving through many states. "The people drive a lot faster over here, but as long as you stick to the rules you can do alright."

"Conditions in Norway are slowly improving," Mr. Bowitz said. "Flour was recently taken off ration. However, coffee, sugar and chocolate are still rationed. Fresh fruit is also hard to get."

This is the Bowitz' first trip to the United States. They will return in another three weeks but hope they can revisit the United States at a later date.

Car Thief Interrupted During Quick Paint Job

LETTER FROM DOLWIG

The following letter from Assemblyman Richard J. Dolwig, re-elected in the 27th District on November 2, has been received by the Daly City Record:

November 1, 1948

Please accept my sincere appreciation of the very fine editorial endorsement, given to me by the Daly City Record. I know it was a radical departure for the paper, which seldom endorses candidates, and to me that makes it all the more important.

Your endorsement came at an opportune time. You will recall that Daly City was not one of my best spots in the Primary, but with the endorsement of your newspaper I am expecting a much better average there in the General.

My kind regards and best wishes,
Sincerely,
RICHARD J. DOLWIG

Bright Lights For Schools Stressed

The importance of proper lighting for classrooms was stressed at an exhibition of modern lighting attended by Andrew Van de Werff, chairman of the board of trustees of Jefferson elementary school district, and Mrs. Sylvia Estham, school nurse. The show was put on by the Westinghouse Company at the Fairmont Hotel November 1.

A classroom with dark woodwork, improper paint on the ceilings and walls with inadequate and poorly controlled lighting facilities, was shown to bring out the poor lighting that is found in many classrooms today.

In contrast, a room decorated with light colored walls, desks, blackboards and woodwork with modern lighting was shown, demonstrating proper lighting.

It was pointed out that adequate lighting aids pupils in their ability to concentrate on their studies.

Lest We Forget ARMISTICE DAY

Thirty years ago this week the roar of guns and the rattle of war were stilled as World War I came to an end.

The United States observes as Armistice Day the day on which this significant milestone in the progress of mankind was passed.

Though another and more terrible war has occurred since then, and the road ahead does not guarantee peace, the American people pause each year to recall the brave men who fell more than thirty years ago in a valiant, although vain, attempt to "make the world safe for democracy."

Subsequent events have shown that no individual, no group , no nation, can, definitely and permanently, "make the world safe for democracy." The price of democracy and freedom is eternal vigilance and a willingness to defend them. That is the lesson to be drawn on Armistice Day, a holiday now thirty years old.

Discrimination Is Not Dead

Despite the fact that the war is over, discrimination is not dead.

Despite the fact that the State Legislature has passed a Financial Responsibility Law, intended to force motorists to obtain liability insurance for the protection of pedestrians, other motorists and the public in general, it is still next to impossible for some people to place insurance.

Most casualty insurance companies operating in the state of California have adopted a policy of refusing to issue automobile policies on persons under the age of 25 who are students.

The group which is hampered by this policy is composed mainly of veterans of World War II, who, after delaying their education to help "make the world safe for democracy," are now resuming college programs under the GI Bill of Rights.

Most of them are respectable citizens. Many of them are married. Most of them are old enough to vote. All of them have performed honorable war service. All of them are making sacrifices to complete their educations.

The hope of the nation lies in the success of these young men, who will be tomorrow's leaders in industry, government and commerce.

It is a shame that insurance companies should adopt a policy denying these people the rights for which they fought.

True, some young veterans may have bad insurance experience records. If so, the particular individuals whose driving habits reflect numerous accidents should be denied insurance or forced to pay additional premiums.

But it is a shameful practice for insurance companies to refuse to issue policies on the group as a whole — probably no group in America is more worthy of decent treatment.

Unless the insurance companies themselves see fit to amend their policy, the State Legislature should take steps to see that veterans are able to buy the same kind of insurance as any other American.

CONSTRUCTION IN WESTLAKE SLATED TO START IN JAN.

Construction of the first units in the new Westlake subdivision, which became a part of Daly City in last week's general election, will be started around the first of the year, according to Henry Doelger, owner of the development.

The first homes will be located in the area on the north side of the Alemany cut-off, and building plans call for erection of approximately 600 units per year until a total of 2,500 homes have been completed.

The city has yet to approve final layout of streets and to adopt zoning restrictions for the new tract. Plans for the project are now in the hands of the city engineer and will soon be presented to the city council for decision.

Buddy Poppies Ordered By Legion Auxiliary

Poppy making has begun again in the many veterans hospitals in the nation, with the Daly City Unit No. 410, American Legion Auxiliary, ordering 3,000 of the small red flowers, under the guidance of Mrs. Margaret Kenney, unit poppy chairman.

Throughout the winter and spring months, hundreds of disabled men are given profitable employment shaping the flowers, thus making it possible for them to send money home to help buy food, fuel and clothing for their families.

Poppy making has a dual purpose. Not only does it help veterans help support their families, but it also provides the disabled men with something to do with the otherwise monotonous hours in the hospital.

Each year, members of the auxiliary units order poppies from these men and supply the material for them. Wages are paid to the men weekly throughout the manufacturing period.

Since they are paid by the number of poppies they make, they need and want as many orders as possible.

TRUCK ACCIDENT FATAL TO DRIVER

Driving a dump truck loaded with rock for the completion of street work in the Hillside Manor subdivision, Lovier was backing up the truck with the load hoisted for dumping. The frame of the truck snapped in two, pinning the driver to the steering wheel.

A blade scraper and heavy pry bars were required to extricate the driver, who was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital in the police ambulance, only to be pronounced dead on arrival, by Dr. Lawler A. Drees. The body was taken to the Lasswell Mortuary.

'PUBLIC GOUGED BY HIGH CONSUMER MILK PRICES,' STATES CHAIN STORE MILK EXPERT AT LEGISLATIVE MEET

"Present high milk prices to consumers are unnecessary and aid in putting a crimp in consumer pocketbooks," stated R. W. Blackburn, Safeway Stores milk specialist, to the Joint Legislative Committee on Agriculture and Livestock Problems which met at the State building in Los Angeles last Monday. Blackburn's testimony, taken from a brief on the subject of milk prices, told that consumer milk prices at retail stores are too high and based upon unfair and unrealistic costs.

Blackburn emphasized that his company has no quarrel with price control of milk at the producer level. "Safeway knows that producers must have fair prices to stay in business and that assurance of adequate prices must be constant. To assure a fair price to producers and to encourage an adequate supply of milk we support regulations by government agencies which establish fair minimum prices for producers' milk. The company will cooperate with producers to secure successful administration of such regulations.

"However," continued Blackburn, "we believe emphatically that beyond the producer level there should be free and open competition such as prevails in the marketing of other dairy products, and in food commodities generally. Only in this manner can the interests of the consumer be fully protected."

The company offered cost figures in support of its claim that the wholesale price of milk through stores should be reduced substantially with a resulting similar reduction to consumers "who pay cash for their milk and perform part of the delivery function by carrying it home."

No punches were pulled by the grocery company representative. His testimony placed direct responsibility for the excessive prices consumers have to pay for milk at retail stores on the "inefficient practices" which have grown up as a result of price fixing and other unnecessary trade actions. "Based upon cost experiences we cannot help but believe that the high retail prices for store delivered milk allow an excessive wholesale margin which has the effect of subsidizing the expensive doorstep delivery. Doorstep, as well as cash-and-carry delivery, should be priced on its own cost.

The Joint Legislative Committee on Agriculture and Livestock Problems which was set up by the last California Legislature has been authorized to study and analyze all facts relating to or affecting agriculture, the livestock industry and dairying. It is headed by Senator George Hatfield of Newman.

L.A. Man Skips Town, Leaves Bad Check, Car

A bad check which "bounced" last week led to the discovery that David Krantz, who had been living at the Westlake Motel under the name J. H. McCallum, is wanted in Los Angeles for embezzlement.

Krantz had given the bad check to Cryer's Market, 6811 Mission street, on October 16. Floyd Cryer reported it to the Daly City police when the check was returned.

Krantz skipped town last week, leaving a car which he was buying from a Huntington Park finance company. McCallum, whose name Krantz had been using, paid the bill and redeemed the automobile for the company.

Krantz is still at large.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

WOODROW WILSON

Last week the high second and low third wrote stories about the post office and fire department of Daly City. Michael Brush, whose father is a fireman, told the class about the fire fighters. Several people visited the post office and reported to the class what they saw.

The low and high third grades have been finding new uses of numbers and have learned what numbers mean. To many of the children numbers were only the means of arriving at a sum, especially for counting money. Since they have found that counting money is not the only important use of numbers, the combinations are beginning to have a special meaning.

The members of the low fourth grade were pleased and thrilled when the bicycle chosen for inspection turned out to be the one belonging to a fellow classmate, Ted Surbes. The class was proud too becaue the bicycle passed the inspection and had no defects. His basket was not on the bicycle, but Ted had it put on the next day and he now displays a Safe Driving award.

The boys and girls of the high fourth and low fifth are drawing large poster maps of California. On these maps the students are placing the products, animals, transportation, and resources of California. These drawings are colored and placed in their appropriate location.

The students of the low seventh and high sixth grades who were not absent during the first six weeks of school are Marvin Abraham, Robert Armstrong, Carol Bertelli, Daniel Bertelli, Ronald Christensen, Joyce Folmer, Carolyn Gaston, Mary Jones, William Jones, Jane Kennedy, Shirley Melicker, Berta Monahan, Lawrence Schmidt, Roberta Taylor, and Neil Thistle.

CROCKER

Friends and parents of the Crocker School students visited the hall and classroom displays at the school on Tuesday evening. The significant work resulting from the manipulative, collective, conversational, observational and group activities were noted. The display of the well organized sequential learning experiences, attractively exhibited, made the parents realize that in the schools of today children were not only learning the three R's, but were being made aware of the liberties and responsibilities of living in a democracy.

The P.T.A. drive for membership is on at the Crocker School! The oak tree, which is the P.T.A. symbol, is on a chart in the hall, and whenever a student's mother becomes a member the student's signature is placed on the oak tree. This unique incentive of the oak tree was suggested by Arleen Post, H8, and was drawn by Erma Miller, also a H8 grade student.

One of the clever artists of the H8, Lee Branton, left his classmates and headed south to Houston, Texas, with his family. Sorry to see you leave, Lee. We know you'll miss cheering for the Crocker Coyotes.

In keeping with the present political trend, students of the L8 have been studying the United States Constitution. They are learning the contents by analyzing the way the Constitution meets the objectives set forth in the preamble. To further emphasize our country's masterpiece, the children are making their own book of illustrations.

Two new pupils have enrolled in the L7. They are Charles Ciolina from San Francisco and Neil Lundy from Wyoming.

L6 pupils have completed illustrating their time line and work on their Mexican murals both of which have been worked out by the students to add to and enrich their social science study. The students also examined samples of copper, zinc and lead, tin and lead, and lead ore.

JEFFERSON

The L1 grade enjoyed a musical appreciation lesson last week. Recordings of nursery rhymes and musical stories were played and discussed by the pupils.

The children taking part in the dramatization of the stories were Dixie Howell, Charles Terry, Dione Solonisen and Janet Le Pine.

The pupils of the H1 grade have been discussing the subject of people and homes of other lands. This has been valuable in connection with social studies as well as reading and writing.

HI-LITES From Jefferson Union High School

by Carol Donaldson

Tickets for the Junior Prom, "Carnival Time," went on sale Monday. They are priced at 80c. Outsiders and alumni may purchase their tickets next Monday and Tuesday at the high school.

Friday is the big night, when Jeff High Varieties of 1948 will be held at the auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Tickets may be purchased at the door. The show was held Wednesday afternoon for the students and proved to be a big success. Be sure to attend, you can't afford to miss it.

Monday, Mrs. Mildred McGeein, president of the Jefferson high P.T.A., held a reception for the teachers. All parents were invited and refreshments were served in the auditorium.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday senior pictures were taken in the photography room. The students were photographed every six minutes in alphabetical order. There will be six poses, two with caps and gowns if desired. Pictures were taken by Colburn Studios of Oakland. The boys were requested to wear sports coats and ties and the girls were asked to wear a white blouse or light colored sweater. The pictures will be available for 50c each.

The Spanish Club met to choose a booth for the Carnival to be held on December 10. Bernardo Merino is in charge of the decorations and Dolores Garcia will manage the refreshments, which will consist of Spanish food. It was decided that meetings will be held one morning each week to work on their plans.

The C.S.F. has planned a party which will be held in the near future. The purpose of it will be to welcome the new members of the club. New membership cards have been issued.

The Spanish classes this term are larger than they have ever before been. There are 67 students taking first-year Spanish and 28 taking second-year. There is a small class of only nine who are endeavoring to undertake a third year in this subject. It seems everyone wants to speak the language of our South American friends.

There are 34 students who are undertaking the difficult task of learning Latin. If you think this is a cinch course, just tell some of the poor students who are taking it and see how fast they can change your mind. Last but not least is the German class which boasts 25 members. It seems just one lonely student has stuck the course out for four years.

The regular meeting of the executive board was held October 26. A report on student body card sales was given by Vice-President Al Salogga. A half day off was promised if we made 100 per cent but we fell 91 cards short of the desired goal.

Court was held November 4 in the Little Theatre. A great number received tickets and had to appear for their fines.

Tom-Tom sales were scheduled to begin on November 1, and the price was set at $2.25. Five hundred copies must be sold to insure a good book.

San Mateo Jaysee Notes

The evening school at San Mateo Junior College is still continuing to enroll students in its many night sections. At the present time registration figures are ahead of any previous year so another banner and record year is in sight. Last year over six thousand adults attended some of the 7-plus sections offered. Some of the types of work offered deal with languages, Americanization, trade and shop classes, dramatics, art ceramics, clothing, physical education, clothing, woodworking, carving, millinery — as well as many more.

Community Hall of the adult center will have another public meeting Monday night, November 15, with Frank C. Kugelberg, traveler, lecturer, and photographer, as guest speaker. He will talk and show color movies on "Enchanted Isles of the South Seas, Java and Bali." The public is invited free of charge to the 7:30 o'clock program in the college auditorium on Baldwin avenue.

The junior college football team, scheduled to play at Modesto Armistice Day night, has two other conference games on its schedule, one at Grant Tech in Sacramento and the other at Menlo Junior College. The college has other sports groups practicing and has a powerful basketball aggregation getting ready to defend the championship the college won last season.

Junior College students, in an attempt to help all worthwhile drives, are collecting money on the campus. This fund will be used as different drives develop in the community.

Two third grade children won prizes in the Broadmoor Hallowe'en parade. Phillip Green, first prize winner, is to have his first airplane ride and Richard Drake is to receive a cocker spaniel puppy.

The enthusiasm of the fourth grade children in their study of Early California was greatly stimulated by listening to the songs and stories of that colorful period given over the radio by the Standard Broadcasting Company. These Thursday morning school programs are most interesting and educational and the children enxiously look forward to hearing them.

HI-LITES AT S. F. CITY COLLEGE

By Frank Galo

Students and instructors alike rejoiced over the near landslide school bond victory at the polls last week. City College will be allotted $2,000,000 of the $48,000,000.

The college certainly needs the money as evidenced by the main building's capacity of a mere 3,000 while the school's population stands at 5,600. The overflow was shifted to the inadequate West Campus, formerly the Waves' barracks. Much of the money will be used to remodel the West Campus.

Kappa Phi

Versatile Corinne Lambert, SFCC's Homecoming Queen, presents Kappa Phi Sorority in today's column. This sorority is noted for their semi-annual fashion show with all proceeds going to a worthy cause. During the war the money went to C.A.R.E., while this semester's donation went to the SF Center for the Blind. Another highlight of Kappa Phi is their semi-annual Chinese dinner in which all the girls wear Chinese costumes. (Kinda cute, huh?)

Leaders of Kappa Phi are Phyllis Ryan, president; Phyllis Smith, vice president; Constance Wyne, recording secretary; Jeanne Boyer, corresponding secretary; Marilyn Burke, treasurer; Jeanne Dashback, sergeant - at - arms; and Corinne Lambert, Club Advisory Board member and press agent.

St. Rose Academy's gift to SFCC, the lovely Miss Corrinne Lambert, rendered the above information. Miss Lambert was elected Homecoming Queen for SFCC by the students of San Mateo JC. Besides being active on the Kappa Phi front the cute speech major is a member of the Women's Athletic Association. She is also the Block Sr.'s morale booster.

Football

Coach Grover Klemmer's Rams continued their winning ways by downing a stubborn Los Angeles City College, 13-0. It was the locals' seventh consecutive victory in seven starts. After a fumble in the second period, Ollie Matson rambled 43 yards to a touchdown. In the final quarter, the Rams went 80 yards in 13 plays, scoring on a pass from Bob Toquinto to Fred Puckett.

After yesterday's tussle with Salinas, the Rams rest for a week before meeting an unpredictable Stockton eleven next Friday. It will be the last home stand for the wearers of the Red and White. Should they complete the season undefeated, they have a good chance of being invited to Pasadena's Little Rose Bowl.

Instrumental in the team's success are All-Conference Ollie Matson and Bob Toquinto along with Roy Georgi, Don Morettini, Burl Toller and, of course, Coach Grover Klemmer.

Dis an' Dat

Now-it-can-be-told Dept. — Usually this columnist leaves politics out of his column but now that the elections are over, the following can be told. A most energetic group in the campus was the "Students for Wallace" clique. The day before elections, this group put on a singing program despite a slight drizzle. The show was thoroughly enjoyed by students wearing either Truman or Dewey buttons. At least Hank's boys can entertain.

Campus residents were sold scrip books by the cafeteria. This book contains $11 worth of food coupons for the price of $10.

The Latin-American Club will hold a dance tonight in the West Campus. Prizes will be awarded to the best rhumba couple.

OLPH Mothers Club Meets Friday Nite

Chairmen and committees for the forthcoming Christmas bazaar will be selected at the meeting of the Mothers Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help School Friday. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the library of the school. The bazaar, an annual event, will be held this year on Sunday, December 5.

Mrs. Harrington will speak on "Our Lady of Fatima" at the meeting tomorrow, Friday. She will be introduced by Mrs. Valetta Ennis, president of the group.

After the meeting, Mrs. Esther Nolan, hospitality chairman, assisted by mothers of the first grade pupils, will serve refreshments.

Richard Letter was fined $5 for a similar offense; Martin Palerino was fined $2. Fined $2.50 for driving over the double line was Severino Seghieri.

PARENTS CAN LEARN TRAFFIC LAWS, TOO

Sometimes a fellow feels like it isn't any use.

Take the police department, for example. All week long, in cooperation with school authorities, they try to see that school children are taught to cross streets within the limits of pedestrian walks.

And the kids cooperate, too. Most of them are very good at being careful in crossing streets—after being exposed to a safety program which is part of their school training.

Early this week, one police officer reports, a little girl came to school with her mother. She had always been very careful about walking only in pedestrian lanes. But, in crossing a street, the mother took the child by the hand and walked diagonally across. The child complained, saying, "No, mother, the teacher says we're to walk in the lane."

So the mother, using force, continued on her diagonal path, dragging her resisting little daughter along with her.

Make Use of Felt

Use felt from discarded hats for house slippers, a handbag, warm mittens for a school child. Grease spots come out of felt with dry-cleaning solvent—or the felt may be washed in mild, warm soapsuds, though this takes out some stiffness. Felt may be stretched slightly, shrunk, or molded with steam and a hot iron, and sewed by hand or machine the same as cloth. Since there is no raveling, there is no need to finish seams.

Kathleen Day And Myron Heggum Wed Here Last Sunday

An afternoon wedding performed at the Bethel Lutheran church on sunny Sunday, November 7, united in marriage Miss Kathleen Day and Myron Heggum. The couple exchanged vows at a double ring ceremony officiated at by Reverend H. P. Schroeder at 3 o'clock.

Kathleen chose a lovely ivory slipper satin gown fashioned with a round neck, scalloped peplin, train, long sleeves and tiny satin buttons down the back. Her two-tiered finger-tip veil was trimmed with seed pearls. Escorted down the aisle by her father, Kathleen carried a massive arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Preceding the bride down the white-carpeted aisle was Miss Corrine Cuneo, who donned a picturesque yellow marquisette dress fashioned with long full sleeves, round neck, V-shaped bodice and tiny yellow buttons down the front and a full skirt. She wore a matching headpiece and carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums trimmed in baby blue ribbon.

Best man duties were performed by Norman Beddy, while seating the guests were Frank Rehe and John H. Mulcahy. All wore tuxedos for the occasion.

Mrs. Day chose a lovely wine dress with grey accessories for the wedding. She also wore a white orchid corsage trimmed in yellow.

The reception was preceded by a dinner for the family and bridal party at the Club Casino where the couple was presented with champagne. The group then proceeded to the Italian-American Social Club, where 200 guests awaited the bride and groom and partook of a delicious buffet supper and watched the new "Mr. and Mrs." cut their three-tiered wedding cake. A three-piece orchestra furnished music for dancing.

The newlyweds will make their home at 409 Willits street following their return from a two-week honeymoon to Mexico.

The bride, a graduate of Jefferson Union High school, is employed as secretary to Stanford Hannah, superintendent of Jefferson Union High school. She is a member of the El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, NDGW drum corps and parlor. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Day of 401 Willits street.

Mr. Heggum, a graduate of Jefferson High school, formerly served in the United States Army for two years, part of which was spent in the South Pacific. He lived at 145 Flournoy street prior to his marriage. At present he is employed as maintenance man at the Jefferson Union High school.

Super Aircraft Carrier Planned by the Navy

This is an artist's drawing of the U. S. Navy's 65,000-ton, flush-deck aircraft carrier. Originally proposed by the late Admiral Marc A. Mitscher, the design of this carrier has been under study since October, 1945. Although the basic design and major characteristics of the ship have been fixed, the location of certain structures, such as the stacks, elevators and the telescopic bridge, is still under study. The artist's conception reflects the Navy's present plans for the carrier. The largest U. S. Naval vessel to be constructed so far, the ship will measure 130 feet longer on the water-line than the 45,000-ton MIDWAY-class carriers. Her overall length will be 1,090 feet. Her water-line beam will be 130 feet and maximum fixed width will be 190 feet. Including temporary structures which may be hinged up or down, the maximum width of the carrier will be 236 feet. Speed will be about 33 knots.

Strange Japanese Custom

The Japanese have an unusual custom — getting friends to autograph favorite hymns. Each book becomes a veritable collection of autographs — pastors, teachers, visiting speakers, relatives and friends. Thus, when a Japanese opens his hymn book there is added significance and reverence as he is reminded of a beloved friend whose name is written across the hymn he is singing. The book becomes a symbol of deep fellowship as well as presenting an interesting array of signatures.

More than 100 of the nation's most distinguished scientists will gather next Monday on the Berkeley campus of the University of California for the autumn meeting of the National Academy of Sciences, elite body of American science.

The meeting will include scientific sessions Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with tours of laboratories and other points of scientific interest scheduled for those afternoons.

An illustrated public lecture will be delivered Monday evening at 8 o'clock in Wheeler Auditorium by Professor Maurice Ewing, of the Columbia University department of geophysics. Professor Ewing, a leader in geophysical studies of ocean basins, will speak on Geophysical Studies in the Aatlantic Ocean Basin.

On the occasion of this lecture, the Academy's Agassiz Medal, for oceanographic research, will be presented to Dr. Thomas Gordon Thompson, director of the Oceanographic Laboratories of the University of Washington, Seattle, Washington, and a leader in the field of chemical oceanography. The Medal will be presented by Dr. A. N. Richards, of the University of Pennsylvania, president of the Academy.

The scientific program for the meeting will be presented primarily by California scientists. Of 29 papers to be presented, 14 will be from the University of California, 3 from Stanford University and 4 from the California Institute of Technology and the Mount Wilson Observatory.

Arrangements for the meeting have been made by a committee headed by Dr. Joel Hildebrand, professor of chemistry on the Berkeley campus. Members of the Academy will be given an opportunity to visit Stanford University, the Los Angeles campus of the University of California, and the laboratories and observatories associated with California Institute of Technology.

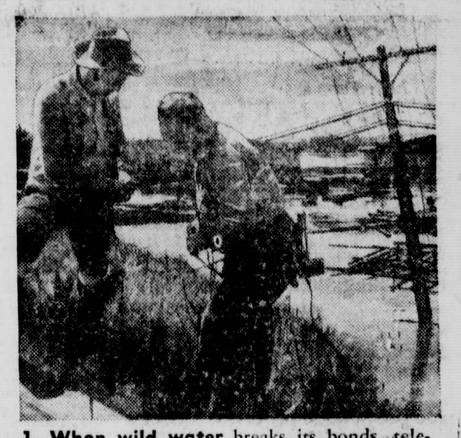
FLOOD FIGHTERS

How telephone people plan far ahead of emergencies to keep calls going through



1. When wild water breaks its bonds, telephone men get on the job fast to size up the damage and begin plotting their repairs. At the same time, if long distance circuits have been cut, your calls will already have been routed over other lines by the Traffic Control Bureau . . . often without your being aware of a delay.

2. Emergency materials like this are stored in special yards . . . set aside and reserved especially for disasters like floods and fires. They're assembled by fast-working crews and rushed by rail, truck or air to spots near the damaged area. They're then sent on by truck . . . and sometimes by boat . . . to the individual repair jobs.

3. The trouble's remedied . . . often while the water is still high. Some calls will be going through in a remarkably short time. For although problems like major floods and forest fires are infrequent, telephone people are always prepared to make teamwork match emergencies . . . to keep your telephone working well for you.

4. Around the clock, day in and day out, your telephone is ready to take your voice where you want it to go . . . quickly and dependably. And telephone men and women take pride in keeping it that way. Sometimes it takes an emergency to demonstrate the real value of a service so often taken for granted.

BROADMOOR VILLAGE NEWS

By Dorothy R. Levitan

Twenty-two Broadmoor overseas veterans attended the organizational meeting of the Broadmoor Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held last week in the Broadmoor Community Center. The group heard details of the V.F.W. explained by Robert Murray, chief of staff of the V.F.W. Murray told the interested men of the purposes, ideals and advantages of the organization and answered all questions pertaining to it. Temporary officers for the post were elected, with Richard McCoy, 707 Midway, chosen as acting commander. For temporary adjutant, Richard Baer, 326 Elsie street, San Francisco, was named. Robert Goodwin, 1740 Louvaine drive, will be temporary quartermaster.

PAPER DRIVE

Paper, paper — all kinds of it — is the cry of the Broadmoor American Legion Auxiliary Post. For it's a paper drive that's the new project of the Auxiliary gals. Members will be around the Village knocking on doors within the next few weeks to round up all the excess paper possible for the drive. A definite date for collection will be announced after the next business meeting, which is scheduled for November 16. Meanwhile, Broadmoor residents be warned and start saving your old newspapers!

LEGION NEWS

The fall membership drive of the Broadmoor American Legion Post is now in full swing, with Legionnaires canvassing the tract for potential members. To date, 25 new names have been added to Legion rosters, with the promise of more to come.

Plans for a Broadmoor Boy Scout troop are being considered by the American Legion Post No. 824 in Broadmoor. Interested boys are asked to contact Commander Peterson at 1514 Sweetwood drive.

COMMUNITY CHEST

Just a little boost is all it needs! Yes, the Broadmoor Community Chest drive is inches away from its goal — inches on the giant thermometer bulletin board posted on 87th street — and only $14 in actual cash. The quota set for the Chest is $600 and Mrs. Marovich, chairman of the drive in the Village, announced this week that a total of $586 had been turned over to Community Chest headquarters.

Mrs. Marovich also stated that Broadmoor is the closest of any unit in San Mateo county to reaching its goal, according to figures made available to her. At the present time, 98 per cent of the quota has been fulfilled, with the hope of 100 per cent completion by next week.

HALLOWE'EN WINNERS

Names of winners of the many prizes in the Hallowe'en festival have been announced by Mrs. Eileen Blanco, chairman of the event. Awards for the best costumes were made by Mrs. P. Brown of Colma, Mrs. D. Belber of San Francisco and G. Duke of San Francisco and went to Bobbie Braun, Butch Fisher, Carol Buckwalter, Lenora Braun, Karen Schramm and Kayo Dean for the 1 to 4 year olds. The prize winning 4 to 8 year olds were Jackie Nolli, Julliette Dryden, Betsy Foster, John Scott Parker, Jimmie Pinelli and Webby Parker. Winners age 8 to 12 were Phillip Green, James Drake, Gary Deal, Eileen DeBernardi, Judith Brown and Sue Whisman. For the group 12 to 14 years: Bob DeBernardi, Shirley Ledrick, Gail Greenlee, Marisa Dryden and Helen Markel.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

A Sunday school for the youth of Broadmoor will start this Sunday under the sponsorship of the West Portal Lutheran Church. Classes for all age groups will be held each Sunday at 9:45 a.m. in the Community Center. Miss Alice Meuniet will be in charge.

JOTTINGS . . . . .

We wonder if it was the unusual fall weather or a case of "monkey see, monkey do," but the rash of Louvaine drive residents out painting the trims of their houses last Sunday was amazing! In one stretch of six houses, four were getting new trim jobs!

We think someone ought to publish a map of the Village. Heard that a two-year resident was stumped the other night when a visitor asked him where Nimitz drive was. Maybe some of us should crawl out of our holes once in a while and take a look around our tract!

CHILD INJURED

Five-year-old Johnny Dillon is recuperating in Junipero Serra Hospital as a result of an accident Monday. Johnny ran out behind a car and headed straight into an oncoming truck. His right leg was broken in several places and his arm, shoulders and face severely bruised. Johnny is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dillon of 1756 Sweetwood drive.

PICNIC A SUCCESS

Approximately thirty people, members and spouses of the Broadmoor Safety Committee, attended the safety committee picnic at the Community Center last Saturday evening. It was agreed by all that the affair was a tremendous success and that the pattern should be followed more often!

S.F. Post Office Receipts Show Gain

Post office business still rises in San Francisco.

Acting Postmaster John F. Fixa announced today that October 1948 receipts in the San Francisco Post Office were much higher than a year ago.

Last month stamp sales amounted to $1,755,174.51, representing an increase of 3.3 per cent over last year.

Other post office business was up accordingly:

The number of letters mailed in San Francisco amounted to 44,107,100, which was up 21 per cent. in addition to this there were 25,227,800 pieces of letter mail received from other cities for local delivery and for distribution to other areas. As for parcel post, 1,292,976 pieces were processed, representing an increase of 11.3 per cent over last year.

Vets Advised To Revise Old Wills

"What became of the will you left behind you when you were shipped overseas?"

This provocative question is being asked of San Mateo county veterans who served abroad by Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer at the courthouse, Redwood City.

Most servicemen made out wills and powers of attorney before they went overseas, and in many cases these are completely out of date and no longer express the veteran's wishes as to the disposal of his property if he dies, Granger points out.

"Cases keep coming up in which an estranged war bride still is the legal heir of a veteran whose marriage to her did not last," Granger said. "In other instances men who had little or no property while in service are now the owners of something of considerable value, which might go to a stranger under the terms of an obsolete will."

Veterans were advised to consult their respective attorneys regarding this matter.

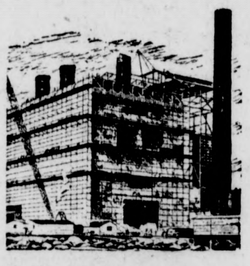
ON ARMISTICE DAY RESOLVE THAT AMERICA SHALL STAY STRONG

This message is published in the public interest by:

One of nation's heaviest freight loads for P. G. and E. power project

So heavy, it took a truck and trailer with 74 wheels to haul it...so gigantic, only three railroad flatcars in the entire nation were strong enough to carry it —that's the story of a new P. G. and E. generator armature which soon will be helping turn out 149,000 electrical horsepower for Northern and Central California. One of the biggest ever built, this armature weighs 356,000 pounds (178 tons) and is 24 feet long, 12½ feet high. You see it here on the last leg of a 3,000-mile journey from the East.



Its destination was P. G. and E.'s Station "P" at Hunters Point in San Francisco, now being expanded to a capacity of 360,000 horsepower as just part of America's biggest power building program.

Due on the line within the next few weeks, the new generators at Station "P" will bring our total additional power since V-J Day to more than half a million horsepower. And still more is on the way!

For the record
Since wartime controls were lifted P. G. and E. has already spent more than $300,000,000 building new power...
...to rush facilities that will add nearly 2 million horsepower to California...
...with a program that is creating more than 7,000 new jobs here.

Work never stops on our power-building program

Sgt. Adrian Davidson In Mountain Maneuvers

Master Sgt. Adrian Davidson, USMC, of 581 Hanover street, serving with the Seventh Marines at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, California, celebrated the 173rd birthday of the Marine Corps today by "snapping in" for cold weather mock war maneuvers in the mountain ranges of Camp Pendleton. This differed greatly from the situation in which some 80,000 other Leathernecks found themselves today.

Traditions of the Marines demand suitable celebration on November 10 of each year no matter where they may be stationed. However, there was no party for the Seventh Marines today as they exchanged their shorts for "long handled" woolens and their dress blues for arctic parkas.

Veterans Weekly News Column

Between 2,000 and 3,000 subsistence checks mailed this month to northern California veterans who enrolled in school this fall will be returned because the veteran has moved and failed to promptly inform the Veterans Administration of his new address, VA officials report.

Federal law prohibits mail carriers from forwarding a government check from one address to another. It must be delivered to the address on the check.

Checks which cannot be delivered will be returned to the Treasury Department and held there until the veteran submits a change of address to the San Francisco Regional office of the Veterans Administration.

A veteran whose eligibility for education under the G-I Bill runs out after he completes at least half of a school semester can complete the semester at government expense. He will receive subsistence allowances for the remaining period.

More than a million and a half World War II veterans were reported in training under the G-I Bill on September 3, 1948.

Of the 1,563,000 trainees, 897,500 were enrolled in schools and colleges, 267,000 in institutional on-farm training and 398,500 in job training.

On that date, 202,000 disabled veterans were in training under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (Public Law 16). The total included 77,500 in schools and colleges, 34,500 in institutional on-farm training and 90,000 in job training.

Question: What are the deadlines that apply if I wish to take my training under the provisions of the G-I Bill at a later date?

Answer: You may apply for training within four years from July 25, 1947, or within four years from the date of your discharge or separation from the armed services, whichever is later. You must finish your training by July 25, 1956.

...wning Co. Wants ...cal Representative

The company manufactures Cali...nia redwood awnings and door ...ods, which have had a good re...tion in residential areas ...roughout the west.

James Wilson, sales manager, ...aid, "We prefer our representative to be a local businessman, well known in his community. Men with a furniture, paint, general merchandise or appliance store have been found to be very satisfactory.

"There is no stock to carry. There is no investment required, and FHA terms are available to customers."

Wilson said interested persons should write to the Zephyr Awning Company, 2317 El Camino Real, San Mateo.

CLEAN, LUBRICATE, CLEAN

Over-lubrication is decidedly harmful in one way, and it is a way that does not occur to the average motorist. Oil and grease attract and retain dirt and dust. Any excess, therefore, of lubricant left around a bushing or bearing is likely to permit a collection of dirt to gather, work its way into the moving parts and cause a greater rate of wear. It is always wise to wipe off any excess grease or oil.

STRIPERS RUN

Striped bass have been running up Elkhorn Slough, Monterey county, during the past week.

New Stamp Honors Poppy Founder

This new three-cent stamp honors Moina Michael, who founded the memorial poppy tradition in America. First day issue sale will be in Athens, Ga., Nov. 9. The color of the stamp will be announced later.

PACIFIC HOUSE

Pacific House, located in El Dorado county, is reported to have been the halting place of many a famous wanderer in the early days. Here stopped such people as Horace Greeley, Mark Twain, and Thomas Starr King.

Madera county, with an estimated population of 35,000, has nineteen doctors.

United States factories turned out a total of 3,837,860 cars, trucks, and buses during the first nine months of 1948. Thrift vs. Vanity Is New Law Challenge

With the cold light of a new law on the matter, will elderly women who out of vanity have always refused to state their true age now disclose it for the sake of a tax saving?

The question is posed by Augusta Rosenberg, Los Angeles attorney and lecturer in Current Income Taxation for University Extension, University of California.

"This year, for the first time, a special exemption of $600 is given every taxpayer who is 65 years of age or older. Thus vanity fights with thrifty common sense. The elderly are not the only ones who will save by the Revenue Act of 1948. It also made the most drastic change in the tax position of married couples in federal tax history. It changed the rules of income, estate and gift tax liability. The new provisions are very technical but the net effect is to create tax-saving privileges which, if employed, result in somewhat lower income taxes and in greatly decreased estate and gift taxes," the attorney points out.

SALMON RUN

A heavy run of salmon moved into the Smith River in Del Norte county during this past week. Many large fish have been landed near the mouth of the river.

STRIPED BASS FISHING

Striped bass fishing has been good during the past few days near China Camp, Marin county, and Carquinez Straits, Contra Costa county, according to the National Automobile Club. Although fish have all been small, many limits have been taken.

LOCK YOUR CAR

Motorists are warned by the public safety department of the National Automobile Club to lock their ignition switch, lock the doors, and remove the keys when ever leaving their automobiles unattended.

The San Joaquin Basin contains 36.3 per cent of the agricultural land area of California.

ROAD SIGNS

No citizen who has any consideration for his own safety or the safety of motorists will deface or destroy road signs, points out the National Automobile Club. Put up for the protection of both pedestrians and motorists, these signs cannot fulfill their valuable function if they are defaced or destroyed..

Two Thrillers On Crest Screen

Fans who prefer their excitement straight from the shoulder, are in for a special treat today, when two of Warner Bros.' most popular rugged dramas, "God's Country and the Woman," based on the famous James Oliver Curwood story, and "Flowing Gold," suggested by a Rex Beach story, are playing at the Crest Theater Friday and Saturday.

Both pictures are jam-packed with that brand of action and excitement which is fascinating throughout. Beverly Roberts, Barton MacLane and Robert Barrat are importantly cast in the Curwood tale, which has George Brent and Alan Hale in top roles.

The screen version of Rex Beach's widely read story, "Flowing Gold," which stars John Garfield, Pat O'Brien and Frances Farmer, also on the same bill, is a dynamic drama of Texas' great oil fields, that sprawling strip of land where men fight ruthlessly to capture the black flowing gold. Alfred E. Green directed this exciting story.

DAYDREAMING WHILE DRIVING

With most modern motorists the act of driving has become almost instinctive, and the tendency to daydream while driving has become very strong. But it takes an alert mind to handle the emergencies that arise in today's traffic. If a child darts out from behind a parked car or a truck suddenly lurches out from a side road, a driver's pleasant daydream can very easily be turned to an unpleasant nightmare.

More than $190,000,000 was spent in the U.S. for commercial phonograph records in 1947.

School days are never over for us!
Long ago we learned that folks like to shop in stores that serve them well. So we're always studying ways to keep our service the very best. This means constant training for all of us.
New members of the Safeway family receive basic training before they start to work in our stores. Then the real course begins. It takes continual study and practice to maintain the up-to-date knowledge and skills needed to give you fine service. Regular training for all Safeway men and women meets this need.
But there's more to Safeway service than the fact that our people are well-trained. Most important is our sincere desire to make each shopping trip pleasant for you. You'll see this in the friendliness and courtesy of the men and women who serve you in our stores.
Enjoy the finest in food service. Shop Safeway!

The first railroad west of the Mississippi, completed in 1856, ran from Sacrameno to Folsom, a distance of 22 miles.

SECURE BATTERY

If an automobile battery is not securely fastened in its carrier, excessive vibration will tend to shorten its life by shaking active material off the positive plates, warns the California State Automobile Association.

GRAIN OF SALT

The pedestrian who has faith in that oft-made boast of a driver's ability to "stop on a dime" is due for a rude awakening or a long sleep.

"Coming Soon" Wrong, Appliances Are Here

The collective faces at Westlake Furniture were red this week and so, we confess, are faces at The Record.

Last week, intending to advertise their complete line of General Electric appliances, Westlake slipped in an outmoded mat, which read "coming soon," in describing a half-dozen GE appliances.

No harm was done, though, as everyone knows that Westlake Furniture has a complete stock of all kinds of appliances on hand at all times. So many, in fact, that they are building a new addition to the building, with an extra 60 foot frontage on Mission street, which will be used exclusively for appliances.

TRY OTHER FILAMENT

The odds are that both filaments of a headlight bulb have not burned out at the same time, states the National Automobile Club. Rather than drive with only one light, switch to the beam that provides that both lamps operate.

The outer adobe walls of the original Sutter's Fort at Sacramento were two and a half feet thick and 18 feet high.

Grace Presbyterian Church Elects Officers

New president is Mrs. Walter Kesler. Mrs. Henry Adami is the vice president, with Mrs. Peter Becker as secretary, and Mrs. A. C. McFadden taking care of the treasury.

The officers will be installed at a dessert luncheon December 9. Chairman of the hos.. tality committee is Mrs. George Archer.
